Today's Youth – Tomorrow's Leaders

I'm honoured to announce that the Top Cadets in Alberta for the 2020-2021 Training year are:

CPO1 Ifechukwu Ezejiofor - #166 NLCC John A Hamilton

CPO1 Mitchell McCormick - #34 RCSCC Chinook

CPO1 Ifechukwu Ezejiofor from #166 NLCC John A Hamilton based out of Calgary, is an excellent example of what being a Navy League Cadet is all about. She serves as a mentor for new cadets and her dress and deportment is always exceptional. That can also be said for her attitude. She is a valuable asset to not only her corps but to the Navy League Cadet Program in Alberta.

CPO1 Mitchell McCormick from #34 RCSCC Chinook based out of Lethbridge, is the epitome of a Sea Cadet. This young man lives and breaths cadets. If Sea Cadets was not enough, he assists with the Navy League Cadet Program. When not at cadets, he volunteers out in his community with whatever needs to be done. No job is too small for him. His reference letters all echoed the same statements such as "kind spirit", "strong work ethic" and "committed".

Bravo Zulu to both of you. Hold your heads high you are Today's Youth – Tomorrow's Leaders
